Principal Message

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome you to Lakhipur College, Lakhipur, Goalpara, which was established on 10th August 1981 with Arts Stream. The College which is situated in a historically important place in the district of Goalpara became a growth the institute in the district with the financial and physical help of the common people living in the vast radius of Lakhipur Town. The people of the surrounding areas become very enthusiastic to make their dreams come true. Those who thought they would never be able to see their children blessed with higher education become confident that their bad days in the field of education were over since when the college came to life.
